

NAKPEHE LEADERSHIP CANDIDATE POSITION: VICE-PRESIDENT-ELECT

NAME: Robert E. Stadulis

EDUCATION: B.S. - Brooklyn College, NY, 1966 (Physical Education)
M.A. - Teachers College, Columbia University, NY, 1967 (Physical Education)
Ed.D. - Teachers College, Columbia University, NY, 1971 (Physical Education: Motor Learning)

CURRENT POSITION: Emeritus Professor of Exercise, Leisure and Sport,
Kent State University, OH

SELECTED PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE/EXPERTISE

1969-1973: Assistant Professor & Tenured Associate Professor (1972) of Physical Education, Mankato State College, Mankato, MN.

1973-2004: Assistant, Associate, and Professor of Physical Education (now Exercise, Leisure and Sport), Kent State University, Kent, OH.

Teaching/Scholarship Areas: Measurement and Evaluation; Research Methods and Statistics; Motor Behavior; Sport Psychology

Publications: 24 refereed articles, 2 books (editor), 32 research abstracts, over 100 presentations at professional conferences

Grants: 4 external grants over $100k each; over 20 internal and external small grants

SELECTED PROFESSIONAL SERVICE, ESPECIALLY WITHIN NAKPEHE:

- National Association for (Kinesiology and) Physical Education in Higher Education:
Vice President for Projects and Research (1983-85), Secretary (2005-2007)
- American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance:
Research Council/Consortium-Fellow (1971-present): roles assumed have included
Research Section Review Panels (multiple times); Chairperson, Publications
Committee (4 years); Future Directions Committee
- North American Society for the Psychology of Sport and Physical Activity:
On-site Conference Director, Kent Conference (1989)

OTHER RELEVANT INFORMATION:

I continue to remain professionally active although "retired." For example, I taught two classes spring semester, three workshops in the summer, and currently serve as a consultant (data analysis primarily) to a psychology laboratory at Kent State and as an evaluator for the Ohio Commission on Minority Health for an academic, scientific and community partnership grant administered by the University of Akron.